THE fact that the Vicercy at Canton has been instructed from Peking, in consequence of Germany's seizure of Kinochan Bay, to hold a council of the high officers of the Trovince to devise means for strengthening the forts and to prepare for all emergencies, would seem to indicate that China is not prepared at once to acquiesce in the seizure and anticipates that her opposition may lead to reprisals. Presumably similar instructions to those received at Canton have been issued to all the maritime provinces. The chances, however, we should say, are against any actake it, will not wish to send out a large petition on Saturday next. military expedition to China, but will be content with Kiaochan Bay. Chinn on her part will hesitate to make any attempt to turn the intruders out, her prescrit fleet being wholly inadequate to effect any such operation. If, however, she should be illbe disastrous to herself. Germany, while not anxious to go to war, has assuredly not taken the step she has at Kinochau without having carefully conuted the cost and being a force of sufficient strength to march on Peking and take satisfaction there. China's way upwords. best policy will be to accept accomplished facts and proceed to set her house in order so as to avoid similar severe lessons in the future. Anti-foreign outrages must cease, or other Powers will follow Germany's example and exact prompt reparation in the form of territorial concessions for the murder of their subjects.

The new gan-boat Surprise, of the French navy, arrived at Colombo on the 3rd November. The Surprise is one of the vessels ordered out to augment the fleet in the Far East, but was delayed as she was ordered to proceed to Mada gascar before coming on to her new station. From Madagascar she left direct for Galle.

At various points of the Sussex coast in the vicinity of Brighton there have been cast up by the sea a number of cases of medical stores, and also a lifebuoy bearing the name of H.M.S. During. The cases were addressed to the dispenser of the Royal Naval Hospital, Hongkong, but there is nothing to show what ship they have come from.

At Shanghai on the 19th November, a fire broke ont at about 1.30 a.m. among some loose cotton in the mixing room at the Laou-knngmow Cotton Mill, Yangtzepoe Road. The fire was extinguished by the automatic sprinklers with which the premises are fitted, aided by the hose belonging to the mill. The damage done is estimated at between Tls. 8,000 and Tls 9,000, principally caused by water.
